groups love temecula valley

With amenities ranging from wine-tasting to golf, hiking to spa experiences and easy access to Southern California's best-loved locales, planners can create the perfect itinerary for groups of five to 50 in Temecula Valley Southern California Wine Country.

WINE COUNTRY

Our hidden-gem wine region boasts spacious skies, rolling hills and more than 40 wineries with hand-crafted wines to please every palate. Our more than 5,000 awards and rave reviews attest to the quality of Temecula Valley vintages. Wine-tasting experiences range from rustic and earthy, grand and elegant to sleek and modern, but always with friendly, relaxed Southern California hospitality. Behind the scenes VIP tastings and tours make an especially memorable Wine Country experience for groups.

OLD TOWN

This vibrant, pedestrian-friendly downtown area spans 12 boardwalk-lined blocks. Visitors enjoy its festive special events, live music and nightlife, eclectic restaurants, cafes and saloons, unique specialty shops and California-Certified Farmers Market every Saturday.

OUTDOOR ADVENTURE

Temecula Valley's welcoming weather and panoramic scenery gets guests outside year-round. Often described as a Mediterranean climate, our destination offers ample opportunity to...

- Golf on impressive, vacation-worthy courses
- Flight-see in a hot air balloon above the vines
- Take a trail ride on horseback or bike
- Hike the Santa Rosa Plateau Ecological Reserve

SHOPPING

Shopping in Temecula Valley is always fun and familiar, yet surprising and new. Discover finds from distinctive, on-trend stores and upscale boutiques at Promenade Temecula, unique epicurean specialty shops and antique stores of Old Town Temecula and from farmers and local purveyors at the region's three California Certified Farmers Markets. And don't forget to shop for wine while you're here!

HISTORY

History buffs will love our Wild West heritage. The Temecula History Museum in historic Old Town tells the story from its start in 1859. The Hotel Temecula in Old Town housed the original post office, jail and switchboard. And it's easy to imagine bygone days at the newly restored Vail Headquarters—once the epicenter of the sprawling stagecoach-era Vail Ranch, now home to shops and restaurants.
